"Who Am I?"

Sometimes everthing seems outta my reach
No matter how hard I try
Sometimes I feel like nothing at all inside
With everything that I try to hold on to Just seems to slip away
Though I fall it keeps calling me back again
But I keep looking, I sink or swim
Keep searchin to find the real me

Who am I tell me
Where do I come from
Who am I tell me
Its like I dont fit in at all

Sometimes I feel like runnin away
And leaving it all behind
Try to a place where I belong
But I keep lookin,
I'll find myself
I keep searchin to find the real me

Who am I tell me
Here i am, forgive me
Who am I tell me
Its like I dont fit in at all

oh its like i don't fit in,
But i know that i don't fit in at all
