Come on ask me anything
I'm the king of not very much

Where the world is going?
Back to where it once was

My heart knows, my eyes will see
When lips are telling lies

When I got dreams with people in
They always wave goodbye

I'm gonna hit that wall
I'm gonna take that fall
And if it feels good
I'll do it again
Close the door to it all
A crash and a fireball
And if that feels good
This is the end

I miss being a hippie
Because I've lost my innocence

And when I find the guilty
I don't want the war to end

Cowards will tell the future
'Cause they're afraid of what's to come

I'm a dreamer - a loser
And I'm going 'till the going is gone

I'm gonna hit that wall
I'm gonna take that fall
And if it feels good
I'll do it again
(If it feels good
I'll do it again)
Close the door to it all
A crash and a fireball

And if that feels good
This is the end

A lie and a dream
Suddenly everything's real
Trying to hide in plain sight
But the souls falling out of your eyes
Whatever you tried to do
Whatever you did was true

I'm gonna hit that wall
I'm gonna take that fall
And if it feels good
I'll do it again
(If it feels good
I'll do it again)
Close the door to it all
This is the end
