Yeah, the thruth is
Over and over I know
Slower and slower things grow
It might not be pretty I know
But, the change is happening slow
You've found a pitifull tongue
Yeah, it translates what you've become
Worse than crazy - you're dumb..!

So, I say see ya
I wouldn't wanna be ya'
Everything is clearer
The truth about you..
You got noone to lie to
Noone there to cry to
I just want to say goodbye to..
- The truth about you..
The truth is..
Love arrives and it dies
Old darkneses, childhood lies..
We all got our own disguise
I just wish you'd be more of a surprise
Until I'm gone and all grown
I'll always want someone to own
But, with you - I just want to be alone

I don't mind the coming down
It's the way it's got to be
I only hope I'm left inside
