There's a big gulp in it's holder, It's been sittin' there for day's The fizz is slowly dyin' out Around it there's a haze Don't pay much attention tot eh wrappers on the floor
The sunflower seeds the mouse chewed up There fallin' out the door chorus

Cuz' I've got boomerangs, stuff that hangs, charcoal for your back grill
Guitar strings, water wings, flowers for your window seel
and new big yellow double criss cross polly grip gloves you can find hardwear, yardwear, candles for a stormy night rice cakes, yard rakes, string to help you fly a kite and a mouse that I havn't caught yet and I hope he doesn't die

now my neighbor plays the tuba it's been missin' for a year found it in my back seat while lookin' in my mirror he doesn't understand why it wasn't seen before I said "take a look inside my friend, my cars just like a store"

now my brother rode with me to south dakota just for fun he's been missin' 7 years now, we stopped countin' on our thumbs found him last october little shakin up and old he ain't ridin' in my car no more, at least that's what I've been told

now riders have to wait in line there's only room for one and even if you get a seat, well you might sit on bun your feet won't touch the florr because there's stacks and stacks of stuff so do you wnat to ride with me?
or have you heard enough?

dig it!!!!

chorus (really fast)

... and a mouse that I havn't caught yet... and tony hopes he dies
