Ever since I've become one of Yours
I'm a target for kill
The enemy is on my trail
Wants to own my will
Shots of guilt with every surge
Of enticing attack
Part of me wants to surrender now
But my heart fights back
(Chorus)
Tug of war
Pulling my mind
Back and forth
All the time
In the stillness of my lonely room
I feel the passion of God's heart
Oh, You know I want to do what's right
But I'm so torn apart
(Repeat Chorus)
