They have calculated outcomes, we just pray the numbers lied.
It's all calm here on the surface, but a war rages inside.
And she, lays still; tonight.
She, lays still tonight.

Pull me closer while I count the days,
Until I see your face,
Til I look into your eyes.
When I'm tired you can carry me.
Until I see your face.
Til I look into your eyes.

Well we can fire back.
Another plan of attack.
Something to tip the scales in our favor again.
If were expecting less.
We just allow the glass to drain empty through the cracks in the bottom...

And wash away... (away, away)
Don't wash away, tonight!

Pull me closer while I count the days.
Until I see your face,
Til I look into your eyes.
When I'm tired,
You can carry me.
Until I see your face,
Til I look into your eyes...

This is life.
And I am passing through.
But this world had been caught lying,
About what it is I'm here to do.

This is life. (this is my life)
It's mine to waste or use.
But it's time that I decided.
It's time for me to chose.
Cause who am I. (this is my life)

That you would die to prove.
That the worthless are all worth it.
The curse has been removed.
So this is life. (this is my life, this is my life! )
Although I'm passing through...
I wanna live as if I'm dying.
Dying to get close to you!

This is life!
And you would die to prove,
That the worthless are all worth it.
The curse has been removed.
This is life.
And I am passing through.
Wanna live as if I'm dying.
Dying to get close to you.
To you!
