Wish you were here i'd hold you near but you know i've got things to attend to i remember the way you'd laugh and say that you love me and don't just pretend to you know i love you so but i won't be thinking about you you know i love you so but i won't be thinking about you it won't be long you know i'm not wrong even though i'm a little afraid i remember your face your warm embrace and i'll think of the memories we've made now i go and leaveyou alone remembering i love you so you know i love you so but i won't be thinking about you you know i love you so but i won't be thinking about you
