One word at a time!

Phineas (Talking):
Ladies and Gentlemen my sister, Candace Flynn!

Candace (Singing):
And in the end the most important thing
Is that we never forget
The end of a shoelace is called the...
The uhhh...

Candace (Talking):
Wait a minute! It doesn't matter.
I can't beleive I was almost sucked into this!

Phineas (Talking):
I can't believe you still don't know what it's called.
I mean we spelled it a bunch of times in the song
