A CHANCE TO make a CHANGE
A chance to tell the tale the way it is A chance to REARRANGE
A chance you never had, just merely wished

You're lying in the gutter
Not feeling at all well
Some parasite read your letter
A one way ticket off to hell
The juicer the story
The quicker one will get in
And no one will be sorry
After chucking you in the bin

I lost my soul while others stole the show
I lost my soul cos it has been shown all over the world

Got to keep up those ratings
I'm rich because of you

Must be awfully frustrating Here have a cigar or two Still lying in the gutter Media made it look swell
So no one can be bothered That you're in a hell

"Hey damn baby hey are you going away I can see you're down so I'll give you a chance a chance to bring you a little higher hey just a little bit then thrown in fire meet nation's desire"

"Oh dear you unfortunate thing oh please next week you must come to the show oh goody am I not the king oh yes I know you know I'm lower than low"
