Subtle disbalanced liquidity
I was sure to be set at ease
Instead of relieving me from my pains
A sense, a shred of my imagination evolved

In theropeutical treatment
Suggestibility is used
By calling upon my symptoms in trance
Dislodge my repressed tears
Expel vexatious traumas
Drown now in my suggestive resistance

Not based on a mere physiological process
The state in which I now drop into Here is where I'm unobstructed, nor beheld from access
Subconsciousness is my aspiration

Subtle disbalanced liquidity
The cure was within reach

Some problems seemed to fade away
But the malignant sickness is here
Which tends to stop

Not based on a mere physiological process
The state in which I now drop into
Here is where I'm unobstructed, nor beheld from
access
Subconsciousness is my aspiration

Subtle disbalanced liquidity
Subtle disbalanced liquidity

Take my opinion as an advice
The only way to lose this miraculousness
Is not the responsibility of a psychologist
It's also the will of the mind...

Subtle disbalanced liquidity
