Rising above the searching of love visions
I felt this,
Darkness resonance
Nailing a thousand nazarenes
Screaming through your thousand faces

Robed in black,
From this ritual madness.
The demons of the heart
I have learned to obey.

I have learned,
I have learned to obey
(2x)

War is declared
There's blood everywhere.
(4x)

???fast part???

[First verse]

[solo]

War is declared. There's blood everywhere.
