I'm having a fun life smiling inside here
Waiting for nobody it's a silly thing
I'm getting sleepy and sleepy and sleepy today
Hurry up driver you need to step on it
Don't waste your time like you wish you're alone here
I'm getting sleepy and sleepy and sleepy today

It's a 4 oclock bus ride (What a beautiful sunshine)
All for work I have to wake up
All it's worth of a salary break down
Hope I could stay home
Hope I could stay home

A ticket to ride I collect for nothing
A woman beside me I see her yawning
Sail me away and away and away and away

It's a 4 oclock bus ride
All for work I have to wake up
All it's worth of a salary break down
Hope I could stay home
Hope I could stay home

Holding on, I'm leaving and I fetch myself back home
Play the phone, but no ones up this time
Holding on, I'm leaving and I fetch myself back home
Play the phone, but no ones up this time

It's a 4 oclock bus ride
