I'm feeling inspired today
Of writing words of faith
In a cold room watching the wind smash my face
I'm strumming as hard as I can
The ash trays full again
And I don't want to waste my head turning blank

And whos gonna sing my songs, humming along
When I'm gone
I'm stuck inside this madness to music that I wanted to share
You will never care
When I'm gone

Decision is made to fade
When someone you knew was fake
When someone throws away the works you made.
I'm holding on my grip
I'm trying to slow a bit
I'm trying to understand those pieces of creeps

And whos gonna sing my songs, humming along
When I'm gone
I'm stuck inside this madness to music that I wanted to
share
You will never care
When I'm gone
So help me! Make a!
Stand and fight and free our rights to play
So help me! Make a!
Stand and fight and free our rights to play!
