(maitland)

So this is where I come in
A wheel that you caught me mid spin
From all around me begins
The rhyme of a thousand violins
I see that you've heard this before
The room has been cleared behind that door
The song of a force like the weight of a ball
I don't think I can keep in the air at much more

Chorus

I see the sun slowly returning
The skies overrun with messages burning
The day is begun
Painting a moment in space
Smiling in two different ways
Wondering where you are today

There's a loop you
Know I can jump through
Heavy or self important today
If you want to
If it's what you're used to
I must disappoint with a point I can't overstate
I no longer feel that way

Chorus

If it hits you
Like a hair in the gate
If it hits you
As a tidal mistake
I never fit you
Like those credible clothes that you wear
I no longer care

Chorus
