I defend my side from the catastrophe that burns
From your eyes, I'm blind from those things you hide

I explode...

Dreams, easily turns to nightmares
It's injected to my veins
I'll be fine if you comply

I believe that we can change it, I do believe in us
And even if you can't change it all, I'll be there to catch
you fall

A simple sacrifice, could turn dead roses to paradise
If you'll forget all, that you've left behind
Please comply

I do...

I'll be there, to catch you fall
I believe that we can change it, I do believe in us
And even if you can't change it all, I'll be there to catch
you fall
