"Long Gone"

And the fires almost dead.
Well there's this ringin' in my head.
Like a runaway train that's ridin' through my mind.

Tried to nurse me back to health.
For a reason I can't tell.
Yeah it's clearer now I stole you ?could sell?

(CHORUS)
Yeah don't try to save me I'm long gone.
Yeah don't try to save me I'm not all I thought I was.
And the path, we take, where it's you I hope to break.
And I can't see why this time.

Now it chills me to the bone.
Yeah those lovely nights they should despise.
That I let you down, now leave me here alone.

(CHORUS)x2

No I don't wanna let you down.
No I don't wanna bring you down.
My time is runnin' out.
