Changes I see everyday I open my eyes world around me evolves but I'm still the same inside never ending choices my fate at hand, I must decide have chose to let go of it all but muthafucker I'm gonna leave my my mark behind. This may be the end but it aint overso better watch your back motherfucker! gotta set myself now never think twice gonna play it right I chose the path all alone I am standing strong ready to fight no regrets no questions I've made my decision but it's a fact that no matter what happens someday soon I'll be back
