Another failed attempt at your suicide
How could i live if you're not in my life
Not willing to sacrifice
The heart that beats your precious life
Received a phone call last night late
Half awake in my cinnamon dreams
Despite plees of caramel sweets
You said: death might be a restful peace
Choose life rude bwoy choose life rude girl
Don't let the pressures of this world get to you
Choose life rude bwoy choose life rude girl
Embark upon the journey that waits for you
Desperation became clear
One false move and your world would tear
Abandon thoughts that no one cares
Let melodies comfort in your scares
Choose life rude bwoy choose life rude girl
Don't let the pressures of this world get to you
Choose life rude bwoy choose life rude girl
Embark upon the journey that waits for you
Abandon thoughts that no one cares
Let melodies comfort in your scares
I can't live if you're not in my life
Nor will i sacrifice
Choose life rude bwoy choose life rude girl
Don't let the pressures of this world get to you
Choose life rude bwoy choose life rude girl
Embark upon the journey that waits for you
