Living my life like it's every man for himself Eversince I was a kid that's how I fuckin felt circled with blank faces, CAN'T trust no one coz when the shit goes down you aint gonna have none waking up everyday thinking about what's on my way holding strong moving on seeing things nothing wrong strength in faith keeping it fuckin real taking hold of all my fears life will bruise you up beat you motherfucking hard gonna try to slit your throat mess with your mind like IT'S all YOUR fucking fault burn your hopes gonna try to steal your dreams choke you hard till you CAN'T fucking scream roll with the punches get it on with the real deal get it on and face your motherfucking fears so now ask yourself who the fuck is in control? It's in your hands if you rise or fucking fall Now stand strong embrace what life brings with head up high make your mind do the right thing. It aint fair it has all the motherfucking reasons Time to wake up realize and make your own decisions Believe on what's in here keep it fucking real Time to take hold of all your fears
