No turning back gotta look ahead made my choice gonna use my head this time it's all my move step ahead myself to prove got it locked up tight the crew's nowhere in sight got me, my pride, my dignity aint gonna let anyone step on me. alone, but not afraid to fightno one can stop the flame inside there are no rules, gotta play it right the pain and struggles in the game of life. (I can't afford to loose ... in the game of life) flip the coin and roll the dice keep in mind that everything has it's own price my faith is my ace keeps me strong in the darkest days hold on to what's true and pure never been too fucking sure it's all about making the right call no regrets if it's time to fall. I will stand strong just for the cause I will stay true for my crew I will stand strong I wont fail me for my crew, my family.
