Comin' out the remedy
We're losin' energy, doctor
Blow me a kiss, blow me away, blow it all up
You're a puddin' plum
Cruise, kept movin' past, don't sweat, no need for distress as we lose
It happened much too fast to avoid the mess

We'll tear them down,
We'll leave no brick, no one, no one will know
We threw it all in, we versed this day
Gone, gone, gone
Without a trace like they were never here,
We've sewn it all in, we first left operate

So who's the enemy,
No more recovery doctor
Blow me a kiss, blow me away, blow it all up
You're a puddin' plum
Break, you better crush it cause it just can't take what you take
It's over done for and time for us to

Tear them down
We'll leave no brick, no one, no one will know
We threw it all in, we versed this day
Gone, gone, gone
Without a trace like they were never here,
We've sewn it all in, we first left operate

Take around, and we have sound and what do you see
The barrio, take care what you wear, make us believe They act like, they got it, they'll never admit that they need it
And they won't add, they'll take it
Well everybody supposed that they'll need it

They act like, they got it, they'll never admit that they
need it
And they won't add, they'll take it
Well everybody supposed that they'll need it

Tear them down
We'll leave no brick, no one, no one will know
We threw it all in, we versed this day
Gone, gone, gone
Without a trace like they were never here,
We've sewn it all in, we first left operate

I'm the barrio, superstarrio!
