"Ruin You"

She was a girl that would read your fortune
Like a bad musician she played it all wrong
Never had no rhyme or reason
Shed say your taste is out of season Shes always been to places you haven't gone to yourself
She only seems at home when she's trashing someone else
Forever into books
Like secret ways to read your mind
She comes on to you, grabs your collar, looks you in the eye
Im gonna make it so good
Im gonna ruin you
Im gonna make it so nice baby
Im gonna ruin you right in two
Turn on the light now
Something bad keeps her going
Running her trap while her ass is showing
She had the keys & the secret password
Flooring her mouth while she's thinking backwards
Well Ive heard of cases where they couldnt shut her up Grabbin it and talking * like she could * you up
Im gonna make it so good
Im gonna ruin you
Im gonna make it so nice baby
Im gonna ruin you right in two
It don't have to be like this
