I spent my weekend blasted
Out of my head
5:30 Monday morning
Get out of my bed
Old lady's out in the kitchen
Bitchin' till I go insane
Yes it's Monday, Monday again
Yes it's Monday again

I stand in line, it's raining
My bus is late
Elbow my way through crowds of people I hate
Nobody pays attention
Nobody knows my name
Yes it's Monday, Monday again
Yes it's Monday again

Sit hypnotised by a computer
Chained, I'm a slave to time
Five days to go before there's freedom
I got the weekend on my mind
Listen I'm sick of rejection
Damn, how I wish I could say
No more Mondays, Mondays again
No more Mondays again
