Please don't come around
Talking bout that you love me
Cause that love sh*t just ain't for me
I don't wanna hear that you adore me
And I know that all you're doing
Is running your mind games
Don't you know that game repeats game
So your best bet is to be straight with me

So you say you wanna talk, let's talk
If you won't talk, I'll walk
Yeah it's like that
I gotta new man, he's waiting out back
Now what, what you think about that Now when I say I'm through, I'm through
Basically I'm through with you
What you wanna say
Had to have it your way, had to play games
Now you're begging me to stay

There you go, looking pitiful
Just because I let you go
There you go, talking bout you want me back
But sometimes it be's like that
There you go, talking bout you miss me so
That you love me so, why I let you go
There you go, cause your lies got old
Now look at you, there you go

Please don't come around
Talking bout how you changed
How you said goodbye to what's-her-name
All it sounds like to me is new game
And I was right when I thought
I'd be much better off without you
Had to get myself from around you
Cause my life was all about you

So you say you wanna talk, I don't Say you wanna change, I won't
Yeah it's like that, had your chance
Won't take you back, now what

What you think about that
And when I say I'm through, I'm through
Basically I'm through with you
What you wanna say
Had to have it your way, had to play games
Now you're begging me to stay

There you go, looking pitiful
Just because I let you go
There you go, talking bout you want me back
But sometimes it be"s like that
There you go, talking bout you miss me so
That you love me so, why I let you go
Yeah you know, cause your lies got old
Now look at you, there you go

Don"t you wish you could turn the hands of time
Don"t you wish that you still were mine
Don"t you wish I"d take you back
Don"t you wish that things were simple like that, oh
Didn"t miss a good thing till it"s gone
But I knew it wouldn"t be long
Till you came running back
Missing my love, there you go

There you go, looking pitiful
Just because I let you go
There you go, talking bout you want me back
But sometimes it be"s like that
There you go, talking bout you miss me so
That you love me so, why I let you go
Yeah you know, cause your lies got old
Now look at you, there you go
