Screw fear it's contagious
Infecting everything
It makes me do such stupid, stupid stuff
I say things I never mean
What exactly do I think
Who am I protecting
If I fall will it blow up in my face
Life just crazy

I'm delicate
I'm sensitive
Please try to be more careful
Your mean,
you're a lunatic
Let's try to make this fun again

It's only love, give it away
(It's only love)
You'll probably get it back again
(It's only love)
It's simple, it's a silly thing
Thrown away like a boomerang
I wish we all could lighten up
It's only love not a timebomb
Ohh ohhh ohhhh
Ohh ohhh ohhhh

I'm tired from last night's fight
I wish I hadn't started it
I hate when my fear speaks for me
It makes me nasty
I thought we could start again
Go back to the days when we felt like friends
It's all too serious for me
And I know I'm guilty

Might shake some poison
That's what I'll add to the fire
My dear I'm frozen
Turned from a saint to a liar

It's only love, give it away
(It's only love)
You'll probably get it back again
(It's only love)

It's simple, it's a silly thing
Thrown away like a boomerang
I wish we all could lighten up
It's only love not a timebomb
Ohh ohhh ohhhh

I don't want to be precious
I don't want to feel stress
Life is for the living
But not a living hell
So take it take this oh you can have all of me
Take it take this here you can have everything
I don't want to be flawless
When I go I want the cuts to show
So take it take this oh you can have all of me
Take it take this oh fuck it have everything

It's only love, give it away
(It's only love)
You'll probably get it back again
(It's only love)
It's simple, it's a silly thing
Thrown away like a boomerang
I wish we all could lighten up
It's only love not a timebomb
Ahhha ahha ahaha
(It's only love)
Ahha ahha
(It's only love)
It's simple, it's a silly thing
Thrown away like a boomerang
I wish we all could lighten up
It's only love not a timebomb
