Somebody's out there in the cold
Freezin' and starvin', I've been told
Breathin' the air we are breathin'
Somebody's out there in the heat
Livin' in dryness and in need
Breathin' the air we are breathin'

Oh Lord, would you please have a heart?
Love is so far away

Take your child to a place where no one cries
To the place where the eagle learns to fly
Only there will we find everlasting peace of mind
In the place where the eagle learns to fly?

Somebody just like you and me
And now he's gone, so who was he?
Breathin' the air we were breathin'

Oh Lord, would you please have a heart?
Love is so far away, just so far away

Take your child to a place where no one cries
To the place where the eagle learns to fly
Only there will we find everlasting peace of mind
In the place where the eagle learns to fly?

Take your child to a place where no one cries
To the place where the eagle learns to fly
Only there will we find everlasting peace of mind
In the place where the eagle learns to fly?
In the place where the eagle learns to fly
