Hey, I'm running
What waits inside of me?
I've got to find out, find out what it is
Hey, I'm seeing the walls fall down in front of me
I've got to find how to find my own way in

Today I saw it
I saw the enemy
And it's me against all the world
Me against the world
Today I saw it
I saw the enemy
And it's me against all the world
Me against the WHOLE FUCKING WORLD

Stay, stay swallowed
Don't say a word to me
I've got to hide pain that's left inside
Hey, I've lost
I've lost my sense of pride
Or was it gone from the time I stepped outside?

Today I saw it
I saw the enemy
And it's me against all the world
Me against the world
Today I saw it
I saw the enemy
And it's me against all the world

DON'T, you're fading away
DON'T, you're fading away
DON'T, you're fading away
DON'T, you're fading away

Please don't fade away
