

Pissing Razors "Three"

Visit "Three" on MotoLyrics.com

Do you know how it feels to be left alone?
Captive and surrounded by these four padded walls
Laughter is all around me, patience going low
Sanity's at its breaking point, prepare for the blow

Devoted to three - forgotten for one

We need out - devoted to three
Let us spread our wings
He is not forever - open up your eyes
And fuckin' sympathize

You're slowly killing us - the three we will prevail

Devoted to three - forgotten for one

Three months of watching - the world go by Incomplete and restless - how can you defy?
Your face reflects what you're thinking
You know that it was wrong
Unleash us from this anguish
It's time to let us out

Devoted to three - forgotten - for one
