V1:

Everything's fucked again - Well those are harsh words
my friend.

Just tell me "some things never change" - Just tell me
we're O2000'.

Everything's fucked again - But go back sleep my good friends.

"You don't think they'd ever let us down?" - "You don't think that we'd.

Remember?"

Everything's fucked again - But don't let it get ya my friends.

Just tell me it's the first time - NO tamagochi headline.

Everything's fucked again? - But then what the hell would I know?

It's just OMillennial dementia' - Just my stupid magazines'.

CHR:

We got nothing to see - We got nothing to do.

We got nothing to take - We got nothing to lose.

And there's nothing we like - And there's nothing we
need.

You got nothing to say - cause I'm telling you:

EVERYTHING'S FUCKED!

V2:

Everything's fucked again - Well these are dark days
my friend.

Just tell me all those pretty lies - Protect me from the downsized.

Everything's fucked again - But we'll play out happy to the end.

We'll all be paid in kind - No contributions this time.

CHR:

We got nothing to see - We got nothing to do.

We got nothing to take - We got nothing to lose.

And there's nothing we like - And there's nothing we
need.

You got nothing to say - cause I'm telling you:
EVERYTHING'S FUCKED!

M8:

But don't let it get you down,
Ocos we'll put it back the next time.
Just don't let it get you down.

Everything's fucked again - Well those are harsh words
my friend.
Just tell me "some things never change" - Just tell me
we're 2000'.

CHR:

(We got nothing to see) - We got nothing to do
(We got nothing to take) - We got nothing to lose
(And there's nothing we like) - And there's nothing we
need
You got nothing to say - Ocause I'm telling you:
EVERYTHING'S FUCKED! [x2]
