I bet you both, I bet you both - you make the most.

I set the scene, I set the scene - I'll make you clean.

You can waste your time this time.

Yes, you can waste your time not mine.

Because I'm never letting go.

You know there's nothing else to be.

You know I gotta set the scene.

I can't give up for you this time.

I set the scene, I set the scene - I'll make you clean.

I set you straight, I set you straight - I take the bait.

You can waste your time this time.

BRIDGE:

Yes, you can waste your time not mine.

Because I'm never letting go.

I can't give up for you this time.

You know there's nothing else to be.

You know I gotta set the scene. [x2]
