I won the fight It seemed like eternity Finally it stopped I am standing in ruins After all, I don't give in There is no time To see the victory

MotoLyrics

I lose but win Here in my realm Like heroes in films I live your dream

The future was mine You built it up But you didn't care So I paid the results But after all Grief is on my side I've had to live Your future plan

I lose but win Here in my realm Like heroes in films I live your dream

I lose but win Here in my realm Like heroes in films I live your dream
