"We demand dance on earth"

Straight edged prone,
This man sleeps alone.
The splendor of those lips departed thus.
I don't need no looker,
with someone like you now do I sugar?

We are all striving for similarities.

[Chorus:]
We ask for chancellor
We demand dance on earth.

As we'll be known,
We all die alone.

I don't need no looker,
with someone like you now do I sugar?

We are all striving for similarities.
[Chorus:]

We ask for chancellor
We demand dance on earth.

Would you feel the same if?

[Chorus(x2):]
We ask for chancellor
We demand dance on earth.
