No time to be hurt
No time to be sad
Let it all come back
Let it all come back
There's no time on your head
No one has the time to understand

Yeah, yeah,
You get used to the pain
And it's tangled, kind of feeling deep inside
And we try to explain
That there's no use hanging on
When something's dead

There's no time to be lost
No time to be down
Let your feelings show
Let your feelings show
This time make a start
Remember, you never had a broken heart
Cause that's the only thing you wanna do
And in no time, life will come right back to you

And there's no way today
No way looking back on yesterday
And if I'm nobody's fool
How come they didn't know that love
Could be so cruel

No time
No time to be hurt
No time to be sad
Let it all come back
Let it all come back
This time make a start
Remember, you never had a broken heart
Cause that's the only thing you wanna do
And in no time, life will come right back to you

No time to be hurt
No time to be sad

Let it all calm down
Let it all calm down
No time to be hurt
No time to be ?ad
Let it all calm down
Let it all calm down
