I'll be there when the train stops,
when that old '64 drops.
In that sun dress you like a lot,
fresh squeezed lemonade for you on the rocks, babe.
Cos I know it's been a long ride,
Now i'm sure it's hot in your Levi's.
I'll be your breeze in the sunshine,
Make it sweeter than the sprinkles on mama's apple pie.

And I'll be playing your favourite song, yeah
screwing up the words to your sing along.
When we roll it's pedal down to the floor,
I'ma ride with you until the wheels roll off.

Throw your hands in there,
'cos we're you we don't care.
Oh don't forget this,
we can be reckless.
Throw your heartache away,
we can live for today;
Baby I'll show you how to roll.
Throw your hands in there,
'cos we're you we don't care.
Oh don't forget this,
we can be reckless.
Feel the sun on my face,
let's go back to that place -
where everyone will let it go when STEVIE'S ON THE RADIO.

Highway patrol couldn't stop us,
we'll take a detour round the road block.
Turn a simple ride into a good rush,
There's no way baracades are gonna ruin the fun.
We can be in for a long night, (mm-yeah)
but when you got shotgun i'm alright.
I feel like a new Bonnie & Clyde,
get your feet up on the dash and just enjoy the ride.

And I'll be playing your favourite song, yeah

screwing up the words to your sing along.
When we roll it's pedal down to the floor,
I'ma ride with you until the wheels roll off.

Throw your hands in there,
'cos we're you we don't care.
Oh don't forget this,
we can be reckless.
Throw your heartache away,
we can live for today;
Baby I'll show you how to roll.
Throw your hands in there,
'cos we're you we don't care.
Oh don't forget this,
we can be reckless.
Feel the sun on my face,
let's go back to that place -
where everyone will let it go when STEVIE'S ON THE
