I'm a short collar
I don't get caught up
I always have the upper hand
I'm a born winner
Even when I'm in love I never give it all to my man
You came in and snuck up on me I'm facing my first defeat

I said I would never be a silly fool but look what you've done to me
Said I would never lose but you came in and changed the rules you win

I love it

I don't care anymore, coz who's keeping score you win

I love it

When my heart is a prize it's yours every time you win
Lalalalalalalala it yours every time you win
Lalalalalalalalalaaa it's your every time

Your my front runner my number one stunner

You know you got me under your spell

A champion lover I'll never find another

Truth is I will pierce through my shell

I'm waving my way surrender

Giving you all I have

I said I would never be a silly fool but look what you've done to me
Said I would never lose but you came in and changed the rules you win

I love it

I don't care anymore, coz who's keeping score you win

I love it

When my heart is a prize it's yours every time, you win
Lalalalalalalalaaa its yours every time you win
Lalalalalalalalaaa its yours every time

Turn me upside down, turn me inside out

Spin my world around

Take my breath away loves a losing game why do I lose out you win

I love it

I don't care anymore, coz who's keeping score

You win I love it yeah my heart is the prize

It's yours every time you win

Lalalalalalalalaaa it's yours every time you win

Lalalalalalalalaaa it's your every time you win

Lalalalalalalalaaa it's yours every time you win

Lalalalalalalalaaa I'm yours every time

You Win.
