You and me, we may not be alike
But we are not so different either

We are not here to fight like enemies
We're here to have a good time
And that's what we're gonna have

We're gonna party tonight
Like there is no tomorrow
There is nothing in our hearts
That can bring us sorrow
Set your differences aside
Stand together with pride
When the hatred ends
We can all be friends

We are not here to fight like enemies
We're here to have a good time
And that's what we're gonna have

We're gonna party tonight
Like there is no tomorrow
There is nothing in our hearts
That can bring us sorrow
Set your differences aside
Stand together with pride
When the hatred ends
We can all be friends
