"Push Around"

Visit "Push Around" on MotoLyrics.com

I've always believed in second chances
Woo ooh
But enough is enough when jealousy glances

You always bite the hand that feeds you
I have to draw the line somewhere
Someday you will realize
What you lost on that I swear

Get out of my life and take my feelings with you
I just wanna forget
Since you came into my life you've tortured my heart
Without regret
I can't take it anymore
I've done all I can
I gave you everything
I've lost a happiness I never found
Find someone else to push around
