"April"

April how could I not have seen? April you coming April how could I have worn inappropriate clothing?
April all that careful stepping, rounding of my soul
And now your rain, April I feel you leaving

I don't know what silence means, it could mean anything

April, won't you answer me? These days just seem to crush me
Hatching, collapsing, tumbling down
April what if I drown, I drown? April I see you leaving

I don't know what silence means, it could mean
anything
Won't you answer me?

I dreamed, I dreamed April
April that I'm walking, that I'm watching April your rain overcomes me
