Baby girl, I know I haven't been perfect for you
But before you say we're through
I think you should think a little while Cause this is just a bump in the road
We'll get over this
Just like the last one that we did
And now we're closer because of this

Oh what we have is worth it
And we can't just desert it
We gotta keep going strong
It's not worth keeping if it's not fighting for
No matter how long it takes
I'm willing to wait, we can't lose to hate
Cause we were built for love

Baby it ain't easy loving you
When the lights shut off and the rent is due
But somehow we always make it through
That's what I call love
So even when I fuss and complain
Baby you know, I know, I ain't going nowhere
I'm staying right here, that's what I call love

Oh what we have is worth it
And we can't just desert it
We gotta keep going strong
It's not worth keeping if it's not fighting for
No matter how long it takes
I'm willing to wait, we can't lose to hate
Cause we were built for love

Yes we're built for love (baby, baby it's you and me)
We're built for love (baby we'll always be)
We're built for love, yeah, yeah, yeah
Built for love
Yes we're built for love
We'll always pass the test

Oh what we have is worth it
And we can't just desert it
We gotta keep going strong

It's not worth keeping if it's not fighting for
No matter how long it takes
I'm willing to wait, we can't lose to hate
Cause we were built for love
we were built for love
we were built for love
we were built for love.
