Can you tell me what happened to you and me?
I thought we'd live happily together forever
But it seems you ask me to do some things that cannot be
What do you expect of me, I'm only human

You're living in a fantasy land
If you think I can be Superman
But I do know that my love will always stand
And I'll love you the best that I can

They'll be good days and bad days sometimes
Just don't let the bad days change your mind
Dig down deep in your heart and you'll see
That the bad days don't change who we be

Take a walk with me through your memory
Remember the way we used to be
Could it be that you changed your mind
Decided that I'm not your kind
Got luck when finding somebody better
'Cause I think you're

You're living in a fantasy land
If you think I can be Superman
But I do know that my love will always stand
And I'll love you the best that I can

They'll be good days and bad days sometimes
Just don't let the bad days change your mind
Dig down deep in your heart and you'll see
That the bad days don't change who we be

Look at our good days verses our bad days
They don't compare
So I'll accept you if you'll accept me
And realize reality

They'll be good days and bad days sometimes
Just don't let the bad days change your mind
Dig down deep in your heart and you'll see
That the bad days don't change who we be

They'll be good days and bad days sometimes
Just don't let the bad days change your mind
Dig down deep in your heart and you'll see
That the bad days don't change who we be

There gonna be
Some good days, some bad days sometimes
