Take a look deep in my eyes
More than a feeling - I call it pride when I know There's a chance and I've got to take it

And I don't mind a bruise, yeah yeah Baby I've got nothing to lose It's only a crazy game

So I try, alone to make it
But it's good to know that you're there waiting Right outside the door

Heading out on my way tonight into a fortress made of stone
To a place I've never felt alone, cause I know you'll be there Heading out on my way tonight just like a king upon a thrown
So just hold my hand and I'll show you my second home...
Down at the Place Vendome

On the streets I feel so free I'm walking miles without misery and I know That it's you that keeps me going

It's like a pleasure ride Turning round and around,
Takes me up takes me down inside
Oh it's such a crazy, crazy time

And I try, so hard to make it
But it's good to know that you're still waiting Right outside the door, yeah-yeah!

Heading out on my way tonight into a fortress made of
stone
To a place I've never felt alone, cause I know you'll be
there
Heading out on my way tonight just like a king upon a
thrown
So just hold my hand and I'll show you my second

home...
Into the Place Vendome

Every time we meet I have to laugh out loud Though people often frown upon my smile
I just nod to them and listen to the city sounds
Then I raise my head and sing like no ones around Oh, like there's no one around

Heading out on my way tonight into a fortress made of
stone
To a place I've never felt alone, cause I know you'll be
there
Heading out on my way tonight just like a king upon a
thrown
So just hold my hand and I'll show you my second
home...

Heading out on my way tonight into a fortress made of
stone
To a place I've never felt alone, I've never felt alone Heading out on my way tonight just like a king upon a
So just hold my hand and I'll show you my second
home...
Down at the Place Vendome
