Now it's time
To realize
What we did tonight
Now it's time to separate
The truth from lies
And everything that applies

This is what we're made of now
We won't watch this fall apart (Fall apart!)
Just erase the clues to how we should have
We should have seen this from the start

Who are you
To tell me what is wrong
When you sang along
Is only time would stop
And things would never change
People would stay the same

This is what we're made of now
We won't watch this fall apart (Fall apart!)
Just erase the clues to how we should have
We should have seen this from the start

But we won't let this bring us down
We're gonna turn this back around
Oh won't you please tell me how we should have
We should have seen this from the start

Whoa-oh-oh
Whoa-oh-oh
Whoa-oh-oh
We should have seen this from the start!
Whoa-oh-oh
But we won't let this fall apart!
Whoa-oh-oh
Whoa-oh-oh

This is what we're made of now
We won't watch this fall apart
Fall Apart
We should have seen this from the start

This is what we're made of now
We won't watch this fall apart (Fall apart!)
Just erase the clues to how we should have
We should have seen this from the start
