We've lost control
Of all we've ever known
If we change direction
Will we make it through the night
You'll never know whoa-oh

So
Give up the fight
Do I haunt your dream at night
Your imperfections overwhelm
Makes you sick of keeping hope
Doctors cannot diagnose
Which words I left unsaid

We've lost control
Of all we've ever known
If we change direction
Will we make it through the night
You'll never know whoa-oh

Just close your eyes
Count back from ten
This won't take long

We've lost control
Of all we've ever known
If we change direction
Will we make it through the night
You'll never know no-oh!

Give up the fight
Do I haunt your dreams at night
I don't miss what we had(?)

We've lost control
Of all we've ever known
If we change direction
Will we make it through the night
You'll never know whoa-oh
