I don't know how to make lots of money,
I got debts that I'm trying to pay,
I can't buy you nice things,
Like big diomand rings,
But that don't mean much anyway.

I can't give you the house you've been dreaming,
If I could I would build it alone,
I'd be out there all day,
Just a hammering away,
To make us a place of our own.

I will write you a song,
That's how you'll know that my love is still strong,
I will write you a song,
And you'll know from the song,
That I just can't go on without you.

I don't know that I'd make a good soldier,
I don't believe in being violent and cruel,
I don't know how to fight,
But I'd draw blood tonight,
If somebody tries hurting you.

I will write you a song,
That' s how you'll know that my love is still strong,
I will write you a song,
And you'll know from the song,
That I just can't go on without you.

Now that it's out on the table
(out on the table)
Both of us knew all along
(Knew all along)
I've got your loving, and you've got my song.
(You've got my song)

I don't know how to make lots of money,
I don't know all the right things to do,
I don't where we'll go,
But the one thing I know,
Is how to be a good man to you,

Until I die that's what I'll do.

I will write you a song,
That's how you'll know that my love is still strong,
I will write you a song,
And you'll know from the song,
That I just can't go on without.....

I will write you a song
(I will write you a song)
That's how you'll know that my love is still strong
(Love is still strong)
I will write you a song,
And you'll know from the song,
That I just can't go on,
Without you.
