

Plan Nine "A Waking Dream"

Visit "A Waking Dream" on MotoLyrics.com

Remember last Summer,
Wish we could go back and do it again,
Feels like years and years I've been alone.
It's been playing on my conscience,
Ever since the day that you fell,
And my mask is now my cell.

And when I lost her well my heart just broke down.
But in my dreams I'll never let her go.

Cos from the look in her eyes,
I knew only one thing,
I didn't ask why,
It was all or nothing.
I still see her:
A waking dream,
Shrouded in mystery.

I moved on to my first love,
The one I left behind to be with you.
You're the girl behind the man, behind the mask.
A part of you stayed with me,
A legacy of you, and there were two.
Although I tried to move on there's only you.

And when I lost her well my heart just broke down.
But in my dreams I'll never let her go.

Cos From the look in her eyes,
I knew only one thing,
I didn't ask why,
It was all or nothing.
I still see her:
A waking dream,
Shrouded in mystery

Visit Plan Nine page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.