You should know me better than that
I won't stop
Time is one thing I never have
Against all odds

Another day
When I get into work I'm blown away
Some crazy guys
Need to be stopped before the city dies

I can hear ticking clocks
And I still can't see the end
I have shot all the locks
Time will tell if I'll mend

You should know me better than that
I won't stop
Time is one thing I never have
Against all odds

Another day
When I get into work I'm blown away
A lonely girl
Needs to be taken from her lonely world

I can hear ticking clocks
And I still can't see the end
I have shot all the locks
Time will tell if I'll mend

But I'm damaged too

There's only one right choice
And you made it, yes you made it
I'll make it on my own
