Now I've been tearing down these paper walls
And it hits me like a wrecking ball
Should I like this?
Yeah, can I have that?

You abuse me like I'm anyone
Command that Satan with your tongue
Should I like this?
Oh, can I have that?

How can I see myself?
When I am falling down (falling down)
Why do I keep on losing?

I love you
I hate you
I break you
I lose you
I find you
And I shake you to the core
Whatever the reason
It's you I believe in
I love you
I hate you
I break you

Why do we beat each other just for fun?
Can someone tell me when we're done?
Should I like this?
Can we have that?

'Cause we're tearing down these paper walls
Our silent screams and show
Should we need this?
Can we have that?

How can I see myself?
When I am falling down (falling down)
Why do I keep on losing?

I love you

I hate you
I break you
I lose you
I find you
And I shake you to the core
Whatever the reason
It's you I believe in
I love you
I hate you
I break you

Why don't you be mine?
Another face another time
Why won't you be mine?
Another face another time
Why don't you be mine?
Another place another time

I love you
I hate you
I break you
I lose you
I find you
And I shake you to the core
Whatever the reason
It's you I believe in
I love you
I hate you
I break you

Whatever the reason
It's you I believe in

Whatever the reason
It's you I believe in
