There's an edge to the wind
Cutting into my skin
And the air's like an icicle
As the night starts to fall
And there's no one around (no one around)
My ears strain for a sound (sound)
As I search through these canyons
So cold and so tall

Armageddon
Oh, no
Armageddon
Came too soon

In this city so proud
Full of noises and crowds
This once was a monument
Now it's a grave
And they warned us about (warned us about)
When reason gave out (reason gave out)
Now it's too late for miracles
There's nothing to save

Armageddon (Armageddon)
Armageddon (armageddon)
Came too soon

Armageddon (Armageddon)
Oh, no
Armageddon (Armageddon)
Came too soon

Armageddon (Armageddon, Armageddon)
Armageddon (Armageddon, Armageddon)
Came too soon

Armageddon (Armageddon, Armageddon)
Oh, no
Armageddon (Armageddon, Armageddon)
Came too soon
