In a little nowhere town
Way out deep in the woods
Sits a little lonely factory
Makin' household goods
With a little nothin' river
Flowin' by their back door
You won't find any fishin'
There ain't no fish in there no more

And the sign said,
Don't drink the water
Don't wade in the pool
No, don't come here at all
And the people said,
You drank the water?
There's nothing we can do
There's no one we can call
Now I guess I'm gonna live forever
Find myself a cave and hide me away
Yes I'm gonna live forever
Find myself a cave and hide me away

When I got up out of bed today
My room was glowing pink
I could see into the future
I could here what the people think
I saw visions in my head
I saw things I should not see
I saw rows and rows of pleading hands
Reaching out for me

And the sign said
Don't drink the water
Don't wade in the pool
No, don't come here at all
And the people said,
You drank the water?
There's nothing we can do
There's no one we can call
Now I guess I'm gonna live forever
Find myself a cave and hide me away
Yes I'm gonna live forever

Find myself a cave and hide me away

And the people said,
Yes you're gonna live forever
Find yourself a cave and hide you away
Yes you're gonna live forever
Find yourself a cave and hide you away

Don't drink the water (you shall live forever)
Don't drink the water (danger)
Don't drink the water (you shall live forever)
Don't drink the water
Now I guess I'm gonna live forever
Find myself a cave and hide me away
Yes I'm gonna live forever
