Why don't you
shoo away all my nightmares feed the pets when i'm not there can you tell

take me home when i'm homesick shuffle ink in the cartridge
can you tell

you're the one that makes me wonder why a man has to feel so bad
why i want to stay

you can say i am not nice that i'm walking on thin ice 'cause i ask

why don't you?

tell me why you are laughing it makes me feel like i'm nothing can you tell

why i want to stay
